

Australiawide Mercantile Agency Environmental and Sustainability Statement.

The debt recovery industry is increasingly recognized for its potential to contribute positively to environmental sustainability. By adopting practices such as electronic communication, online portals, virtual meetings, online audits, energy-efficient office spaces, and eco-friendly strategies.

Australiawide Mercantile is committed to reduce our environmental impact while improving efficiency and cost savings.

These practices align with the circular economy model, which emphasizes resource efficiency and sustainability and reflecting a commitment to environmental stewardship and ethical conduct.
